

SAINIK SCHOOL GOPALGANJ
ASSIGNMENT
CHAPTER-- A DIFFERENT KIND OF SCHOOL

1. Multiple Choice Questions

- (i) The school was different because
(a) children scored good marks
(b) children were better behaved
(c) children were taught to be thoughtful
(d) children were running
- (ii) The aim of the school was
(a) to teach the three Rs
(b) to make the children responsible citizens
(c) to take them for excursions
(d) to promote continuous evaluation
- (iii) Miss Beam was
(a) authoritative and egoistic
(b) kindly and beautiful
(c) kindly and understanding
(d) a successful lady
- (iv) The author was unhappy as
(a) he saw all unhealthy children
(b) he saw them laughing at all times
(c) few children were not healthy and active
(d) he had lost his mother
- (v) Children were made
(a) to share the misfortune of others
(b) to clean the garden
(c) to exercise rigorously
(d) to take the exam
- (vi) The normal children are bandaged overnight
(a) so that they wake up as blind
(b) to make them used to it

- (c) so that they can rest
 - (d) to enable them to see better
- (vii) Other children are given
- (a) good treatment
 - (b) the duty of helping them
 - (c) a lot of homework
 - (d) rewards for good work
- (viii) It is a learning experience
- (a) for the abnormal
 - (b) for the helpers
 - (c) for the normal
 - (d) for everyone
- (ix) To bring change in the outlook of the people, one must
- (a) Feel difficult
 - (b) be quiet
 - (c) take more interest in it
 - (d) begin telling lies
- (x) The author was heavy hearted before leaving as
- (a) he sympathized the disabled
 - (b) he loved all children
 - (c) he liked Miss beam
 - (d) there was still much to learn

2. Short Answer Type Questions

- (i) Ray was a handicapped, how was he managing his customers?
- (ii) Who came to the shop at the time of closing?
- (iii) What was the intention of the intruders?
- (iv) How did Ray handle the two shoppers?
- (v) What message did the old clocks impart?
- (vi) 'Ray was an inspiration'. How?
- (vii) How did the old clock give a timeless message through Ray?

3. Long Answer Type Questions

- (i) “A single person can bring change in life”. Discuss in light of the lesson
- (ii) What is more important in life to be rich – or helping humanity? Give your opinion.
- (iii) What made Ray think the visitor was not really a shopper?
- (iv) Why did visitors come to the shop?
- (v) What do you think the man said to his friend who waited at the door?
- (vi) Do you think the man would ever come back to pick up the watch?